brewhouse ales

Wheat (5.0%, ABV) - $4 pint, $14 growler

In our lightest bodied ale, we combine the German tradition of using summer wheat with the uniquely American flavors imparted by Cascade Hops. The melding of these two styles creates a crisp and refreshing beer with just a hint of grapefruit. We serve it with a slice of lemon.

Amber (6.2%, ABV) - $4 pint, $14 growler

A malty and full-bodied European style amber, this beer's rich caramel color is derived from European Munich and Crystal malts. The malts are carefully balanced with Crystal hops to produce a smooth-drinking beer with spicy, floral aromas.
